

CONG. LILLEY AND HOBSON

Testify Before Special Committee of the House.

SAYS HE WAS APPROACHED

Hero of the Merrimac Claims a Boat Company Offered to Have Him Put on Naval Committee if He Stood "Right" on Submarines.

Washington, March 13.—The Lilley submarine boat inquiry has been begun in earnest by a special house committee. Representative Lilley was heard at length. He began his testimony by reading a long typewritten statement, a part of which was in the nature of an affidavit, in which he outlined his charges in detail. When he had completed this formal presentation, he was questioned at length by Representative Olmsted of the committee, who was designated by Chairman Boutell to perform that service.

Representative Richmond P. Hobson testified that he had been approached by a man representing the Electric Boat company who told him that if he would support the claims of that company before congress, the company could bring influence to bear upon Speaker Cannon to have him (Hobson) appointed on the committee on naval affairs.

At the suggestion of Chairman Boutell the names of the attorneys representing interested parties were entered on the record. Mr. Lilley introduced Frank T. Brown of Norwich, and State Senator Stiles Judson of Bridgeport, Conn., as his counsel. Martin W. Littleton of New York announced that John D. Lindsay, also of New York, and himself represented the Electric Boat company. In reply to one of Mr. Olmsted's questions Mr. Lilley said the Electric Boat company had no plant and no assets. He declared that that company did not build boats, its only business being to secure contracts for boats and then sublet the contracts.

Report Had Been Made.

Concerning Mr. Lilley's assertion in his prepared statement that no report had been made to the house of the investigation of the Lessler charges by the naval committee, Mr. Olmsted called his attention to the fact that such a report had been made, and said that it had shown that representatives of the Holland company had made improper overtures to a member of congress.

Mr. Lilley gave the names of the Connecticut manufacturers and the attorney who had asked him, according to his statement, to vote for an appropriation for submarine boat legislation. The manufacturers, he said, were Franklin H. Taylor of Waterbury, and Charles Ferry of the Bridgeport Brass company; the attorney was John T. Kellogg of Waterbury.

Mr. Lilley said that Mr. Kellogg, the attorney for the Electric Boat company, made an appointment for Mr. Ferry with Mr. Lilley, but Mr. Kellogg was not present at the interview. At a previous visit, Mr. Lilley said, Mr. Kellogg handed him a written form of the provision that would probably be offered in the naval committee while preparing the naval bill of the last session. It was offered, he said, but he did not remember by whom. It was Mr. Lilley's impression that he supported that resolution. It was for open legislation, he said, leaving the letting of contracts with the department. The one submitted this year shut out any possibility of competition. Mr. Lilley said that the name of the representative who, he claimed, had been approached by a member of the Electric Boat company with a proposition to get him on the naval affairs committee if he would favor the submarine legislation was Captain Richmond P. Hobson. He said that Captain Hobson was willing to testify and give the name of the man who approached him.

Agreement Between Companies.

Mr. Lilley said it was his understanding that there was an agreement between the Electric Boat company and Vickers Sons & Maxim of England, who are building English submarine boats, whereby all the improvements made by the Electric company are turned over to the English company, but under which all of the improvements made by Vickers Sons & Maxim are not given to the Electric company.

Mr. Lilley said he had been approached by a representative of the Lake Boat company, who asked him if he would stand for open legislation, meaning that if any appropriation was made it should be left so that all the people could have a fair chance to obtain the business. Mr. Lilley said he would stand for open legislation. Later he was asked by an agent of the Lake company if he would offer a substitute resolution leaving the appropriation to be expended in the regular way by the secretary of the navy.

"I said," continued Mr. Lilley, "I did not care to offer the substitute resolution. I do not think submarines are of much account, but if we are going to have them I certainly will vote for open legislation."

"Was the motion offered in committee?" asked Mr. Olmsted.

"No, he took it to the wrong man," replied Mr. Lilley.

"The man was predetermined to vote for the Electric Boat company," suggested Mr. Olmsted.

Mr. Olmsted took up in detail the question of plans for and the building of submarine boats, and drew from Mr. Lilley the statement that in his opinion both the Octopus and Lake boats are an obsolete type. A point raised in Mr. Lilley's statement regarding excessive profits to the Electric Boat company was gone into and Mr. Lilley said he would produce evidence from naval officers confirming that statement. A discussion arose between Mr. Olmsted and Mr. Lilley over that portion of Mr. Lilley's statement relating to newspaper correspondents and the part they have taken in creating what Mr. Lilley termed a sentiment for submarines, particularly on the Pacific coast.

"While," he said, "I have no direct testimony to offer on that subject, I am told that they (the Electric Boat company) have men who attended meetings of boards of trade, chambers of commerce, etc., and who get up in their meetings and make addresses on the unpreparedness of the Pacific coast and the fear that the Japanese will be over on the next boat and thus get resolutions passed instructing their congressmen to vote for a large number of submarines as the best means of protecting them from invasion. I think it is reprehensible conduct on the part of the company to hire lawyers and newspaper men to go about and create war scares and work through boards of trade and chambers of commerce to bring pressure to bear on members of the house to vote the government's money for their boats."

At this point Mr. Lilley was excused temporarily and Representative Richmond P. Hobson was called. After Mr. Hobson had been sworn, he stated to the committee that he preferred that questions be asked him rather than that he make a statement. Questioned by Mr. Olmsted, he said that he made a statement to Mr. Lilley something like which Mr. Lilley had testified.

Approached Hobson.

"Did some person claiming to be a representative of the Electric Boat company approach you in the manner indicated?" asked Mr. Olmsted.

"Yes sir," replied Mr. Hobson, and he said the party was Lawrence Speer of New York. It was in November last. He said over the telephone subsequently that he understood Mr. Hobson wanted to go on the naval committee and that his company would be able to help him, had influence to bring that about if he stood right on submarines.

Mr. Hobson, in reply to questions, reluctantly admitted that Speer claimed to have influence with the speaker.

Mr. Hobson further said that Mr. Speer had informed him that he would have to "look out for Mr. Williams," the minority leader.

Mr. Olmsted: "The idea was that if you secured the support of Mr. Williams, they would do the rest?"

Mr. Hobson: "Yes sir. They would use their influence to have me placed on the committee."

When Mr. Olmsted said "your appointment on the naval committee was obtained in the usual way?" Mr. Hobson replied:

"I made an official application to Mr. Williams and to the speaker, and I think that was all. I do not remember having urged my case to the minority leader, and I do not know whether any of my friends did so; but it was known by them generally that I wanted that committee. I told Mr. Speer that I did not want the influence that his company had, and I made no promise to support any naval proposition he might have to offer."

HAS ROUGH SAILING.

Postoffice Appropriation Bill Amended in the House.

Washington, March 13.—The postoffice appropriation bill had rough sailing in the house of representatives. Its progress was halted at every turn by amendments, upon which there was lengthy discussion. The attacks were begun on the section relating to the pneumatic tube service, which was forced to undergo a change so that extensions of service should not be confined to the several cities named in the bill but that they should be made wherever the postmaster general may think best. The house was a unit for withholding a portion of the pay to railroads for the transportation of mails until a correct system of weighing should be established, a provision to that effect being incorporated in the measure, and finally a vigorous but ineffectual fight was made upon a proposition by Mr. Goebel of Ohio to increase by $2,000,000 the appropriation for paying the expenses of railway mail clerks while traveling on business of the department.

Still other amendments were in sight when the bill was laid aside for the day and the house adjourned.

ENDORSES CURRENCY BILL

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts Supports Pending Measure.

Washington, March 13.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts strongly endorsed the pending currency bill in the senate and declared that it would be serviceable as an emergency measure and would not prevent the enactment of a general currency law which, he declared, he hoped to see realized in the future on the basis of a central bank.

Senator Paynter of Kentucky opposed the currency bill in a short speech and especially condemned the proposition to insure bank deposits.

Referring to Senator Depew's recent remarks about "night riders" and barn burning in Kentucky, both Senators Paynter and McCreary of that state condemned such lawlessness and denounced the tobacco trust.

FLEET AT MAGDALENA BAY

Admiral Evans' Battleships Complete Long Trip in Safety.

San Diego, Cal., March 13.—When the American battleship fleet under command of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans steamed into Magdalena bay, passing the rocky gateway marked by Sail rock on the north and Redondo point on the south, dropped anchors behind the high peninsula's promontory, which stretches a protecting arm down from the mainland and makes Man o' War cove the most sheltered harbor of the lower Pacific coast, the history-making naval cruise of more than 13,000 miles, begun at Hampton Roads less than three months ago, practically came to an end.

Magdalena is the present naval base of the Pacific for American target work and battle practice drills, and by right of temporary ownership through government lease, the vessels, if not the men of the fleet, may feel that they are again in home waters.

There remains to be made the trip from Magdalena to San Francisco, the destination originally announced and a matter of some 1,100 miles, but it will not be begun until after target practice is concluded and fleet drills are done. This last stage of the journey will be a tour of holiday making, with stops at San Diego, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Santa Cruz, where reception committees are planning all manner of entertainments for officers and men, the latter especially coming in for the greater amount of attention. The sailors will find themselves heroes, everyone, in the eyes of their Western admirers, and are promised a series of fetes which include features ranging from gala balls under the patronage of exclusive social sets to prize fights refereed by Champion James J. Jeffries himself.

The California committees announce that the uniforms of the enlisted men, far from being a bar to any place of amusement, as has sometimes been known to be the case in other places, will be a mark of hospitality and welcome all along the Pacific coast.

There is serious work to be done at Magdalena, however, before the sailors' thoughts can turn to the happy days of homecoming.

Target ranges are to be established off the coast of Lower California at once, according to the wireless dispatches from Admiral Evans, and the divisions of the fleet will be sent out with big guns booming as soon as they are ready. Long before the fleet passed through the Straits of Ma-gellan the ordnance officers of the sixteen ships, the turret captains and heads of the various gun crews were busy with details of the coming practice, and in the run from Callao to Magdalena they completed the final arrangements.

MRS. ROOSEVELT PRESENT

First Lady of the Land Attends Congress on Welfare of the Child.

Washington, March 13.—The appearance of the first lady of the land served to attract a large attendance at the first international congress on the welfare of the child, which is being held under the auspices of the National Mothers' congress. Mrs. Roosevelt, who is a life member of the mothers' society, was accompanied by Mrs. Cowles, wife of Admiral Cowles and sister of President Roosevelt, and her secretary, Miss Hagner. The distinguished guest was accorded a most cordial welcome and appeared to be deeply interested in the proceedings.

In introducing Mrs. Roosevelt to the audience, Mrs. Schoff, president of the Mothers' congress, said the society was proud to number among its members the wife of the president of the United States, which elicited much applause. Mrs. Schoff declared that "it is due to President Roosevelt that the Mothers' congress idea has spread to the uttermost parts of the civilized world."

Establishes a New Record.

Rockland, Me., March 12.—With a southwest gale blowing and a heavy sea running, the new scout cruiser Birmingham established a new record for vessels of her class with reciprocating engines in her screw standardization tests over the measured mile course of this port. Her fastest mile was at the rate of 25.3 knots an hour, corrected speed.

Radium Bathing.

The Australian minister of agriculture has decided to create a radium bathing institution at Joachimsthal in order to utilize radium water for therapeutic purposes. Proposals have already been made to the government by the Carlsbad municipality and, says a contemporary, by an English syndicate for the organization of radium baths, but the minister of agriculture has determined to retain control of the undertaking.

Ellen von Hagen Testifies in Raymond Hitchcock's Trial.

New York, March 13.—Ellen von Hagen, whose accusations resulted in the indictment of Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, repeated her story to a jury. The girl, who is now in the care of the Gerry society, told of nights spent at the Hitchcock home at Great Neck, L. I., and of visits to a furnished rooming house in this city, where the defendant had temporary lodgings. On each of these excursions she was accompanied, she said, by either Flora Whiston or Elsie Voelckers. At the time, more than a year ago, Flora was sixteen, the witness was fifteen, and Elsie was twelve years of age.

In his opening address, following the filing of the jury box, the prosecutor had charged that Hitchcock had been guilty of misconduct with all three of these children. When her testimony was interrupted by adjournment, the Von Hagen girl had sworn confirmation of the state's allegation so far as she was concerned.

Temporary Quarters
SLEEPER BLOCK.

The opening session was most satisfactory to the management. Between 40 and 50 students are already on the register. The course of study presented here equals the best to be had in New York or Chicago. Any young man or woman in Brainerd who voluntarily elects to disregard such an opportunity as is now offered, will act without wisdom. Every young man or woman needs this training if he or she wishes to win in the battle of life. We offer you a fascinating as well as highly profitable course of study. Our new quarters are nearing completion and will be among the best in the country.

Republican County Convention

A Republican county convention for the county of Crow Wing will be held in the court house in the city of Brainerd, Minn., on Thursday, April 2nd, 1908, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing twelve delegates to the Republican state convention to be held in the Auditorium in Minneapolis, Minn., on Thursday, April 16th, 1908, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing four delegates at large and four alternatives to the Republican National convention to be held in Chicago on June 16th, 1908, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President.

The Crow Wing county convention will also elect twelve delegates to represent the county in a Republican convention for the Sixth congressional district of Minnesota, to be held at Phoenix hall, Elk River, Minn., on Wednesday, April 15th, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing two delegates and two alternatives to represent said district at the Republican national convention, to be held at Chicago on June 16th, 1908.

The basis of representation shall be one delegate for each 25 votes or major fraction thereof of the average vote cast for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer and attorney general in 1906, each precinct to be entitled to at least one delegate in said convention. In accordance with the above apportionment the several precincts of the county will be entitled to the following number of delegates in the convention:

STORM IN CHICAGO.

Injures Several Persons and Damages Much Property.

Chicago, March 7.—One of the most severe wind storms this city has experienced within the past three years raged an entire day with only a slight lessening of its violence. At times the velocity was fifty-five miles an hour and for hours the gale blew from forty-eight to fifty-two miles.

In the suburbs and in the parks an enormous amount of damage was done to trees and shrubbery. Numerous advertising signs were blown to the ground and a large signboard sixty feet long at Cottage Grove avenue and Twenty-ninth street was carried into the avenue, narrowly missing a trolley car filled with people. The smoke-stack of the Grand Pacific hotel collapsed, the sheet iron crashing down into the alley between the hotel and the Illinois Trust and Savings bank. One of the pipe sections struck Henry W. Davis of Cleveland, cutting him seriously in the head. For a time it was thought that Mr. Davis was killed, but he soon recovered.

At Twenty-second and Grove streets the wind tore down twenty-five feet of wall of the Nebraska City elevator, upon which a number of workmen were engaged. Three of them were seriously hurt. The temperature during the day rose from 35 at 6 a. m. to 61 at 10 a. m. and then dropped to 32 at 6 p. m.

The high temperature in the middle of the day caused such a rapid thaw in the suburb of Gage Park that the streets were flooded with water and the waves raised by the wind were driven into the first floors of houses, compelling many people to seek refuge in the second story. Later in the day the pupils of one of the public schools were taken home in patrol wagons by the police, the water at some street crossings being too deep for them to pass through.

One of the chimneys of the Sherman House was blown over and the bricks fell through the glass canopy at the south of the hotel, narrowly missing a number of people on the sidewalk.

There's no Time

like the evening for reading the newspaper—the day's work is done—the mind is at rest and in receptive mood with plenty of time to read the paper from top to bottom—therefore this is the opportune time for the advertiser. Approaching men when in the best humor has sold many a bill of goods. It is an art of discrimination to which clever men owe success and is referred to by others as luck.

Another good thing to remember, too, is that the Brainerd Dispatch is very reasonable in its advertising rates; its circulation a valuable one that reaches hundreds of readers that nothing else will. Why not try it.

seriously hurt. The temperature during the day rose from 35 at 6 a. m. to 61 at 10 a. m. and then dropped to 35 at 6 p. m.

The high temperature in the middle of the day caused such a rapid thaw in the suburb of Gage Park that the streets were flooded with water and the waves raised by the wind were driven into the first floors of houses, compelling many people to seek refuge in the second story. Later in the day the pupils of one of the public schools were taken home in patrol wagons by the police, the water at some street crossings being too deep for them to pass through.

One of the chimneys of the Sherman House was blown over and the bricks fell through the glass canopy at the south of the hotel, narrowly missing a number of people on the sidewalk.

There's no Time

like the evening for reading the newspaper—the day's work is done—the mind is at rest and in receptive mood with plenty of time to read the paper from top to bottom—therefore this is the opportune time for the advertiser.
Approaching men when in the best humor has sold many a bill success and is referred to by others as luck.

Another good thing to remem-

a valuable one that reaches hun-

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"At the Unique"

The entertainment at the Unique last night was very good. First number illustrated song, "Don't Worry" by Miss Kathleen Graham, was rendered in a very charming manner, and was followed by a series of comic moving pictures entitled, "House to Let, or The New Tenants." "The Dog Cop" was another comic number showing wonderful intelligence of a dog. This was followed by "If Someone Would Love Me," sung by Miss Kathleen Graham. "Fashionable Paris" and the "Witch's Kiss" are two other films well worth seeing.

Vaudeville at the Bijou

The headliner at this popular theatre last night was "Discharging the Maid," comic. "Some Day," illustrated song sung by Miss Carmen Mahlum was well rendered. "The Story of Treasure Island" is a film 1,000 feet long and is very interesting. The Martinez displayed much talent, their first number being a duet played on a guitar and a harp-guitar. Next a violin solo, which was rich. Then followed another duet played on cigar box fiddles strung with one string. Next they showed their skill by playing one a barrel strung with one string both playing on the same string at the same time. The program was concluded by a banjo duet, which they were compelled to repeat.

Ole Olson

At the opera house March 18th will be a company of first class artists in the comedy drama "Ole Olson," the only Swedish dialect character that has stood the test of time. "Ole Olson" is an old play now but it is a play that is always a favorite with the public. It is bright and clean in its comedy, thrilling in its drama and full of pathos.

Parsifal

A beautiful dramatization of the Wagner wonder play of "Parsifal" will be produced at the Brainerd opera house Friday evening, March 27. This beautiful legend of the tempting of the knights of the Holy Grail by the Magician Klingsor, is presented by Martin & Emery in a production which for beauty of staging and scenic effects, as well as for the high character of the

It would be a very good plan to oil the harness before spring's work begins. The American Farmer recommends the following:

A good cheap blacking for harness, which is to be applied with a sponge and polished with a brush, is prepared as follows: Melt 4 ounces of mutton suet with 12 ounces of beeswax, then add 12 ounces of sugar candy, 4 ounces of soft soap dissolved in a little water and 2 ounces of finely powdered indigo. This, when well mixed, is thinned out with half a pint of turpentine. Frequent applications of this mixture will render the harness waterproof and greatly increase its durability.

More Than a Score Perish.

Birmingham, March 6.—Repeated efforts of rescue parties provided with oxygen apparatus to reach the entombed miners, now believed to number twenty-one, at Hamstead colliery have failed. One of these rescuing parties was overcome by fumes and the work had to be abandoned. Two others narrowly escaped suffocation. The fire in the mine is still raging and there is no hope now that a rescue can be effected.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

POW WOW

Red Men to Have Big Pow Wow March 26th—All the Head Chiefs to be Here

BRAVES FROM OTHER TRIBES

Will Assist Minneapolis Team in Adopting Braves Into Red Cloud Tribes

Red Cloud tribe, improved order of Red Men met last night and made elaborate plans for the holding of their big pow wow on March 26th, when they expect to initiate nearly, if not quite, 300 braves into the tribe. The work will be done by a team from Minneapolis, said to be one of the most efficient in the state. Gardner's hall has been secured for the evening and headquarters for the day will be established in the vacant store room in the Gardner block. The arrangements are in the hands of the committee of which C. H. Kylo is chairman and J. C. Herbst, Geo. Sargent, Geo. Weaver and Louis Stahlmann are members. This committee is empowered to appoint sub-committees on reception, entertainment, etc.

All the great chiefs of the state are expected to be present. Among those who have promised to attend are Great Sachem Dr. Thos. J. Reid, of Minneapolis; Great Chief of Records Frank Hebl, of Minneapolis; Great Senior Sagamore W. S. Wright, of Minneapolis; Great Junior Sagamore W. M. Erickson; Great Representatives Thos. J. McKenna, H. A. Finlayson, J. W. Henry, of St. Paul, Great Trustee; C. R. Seivers, of Minneapolis; Great Sannat; and Prof. U. Curtis, of Lake City, will also be present.

There will be delegations present from the tribes at Walker, Pine River, Little Falls and St. Cloud, and open house will be kept.

Among the candidates will be a bunch of 40 from Staples, 40 to 50 from Aitkin, 15 from Deerwood, 10 from Pillager and 6 to 8 from Motley. Arrangements have been made to meet the visiting delegations with a brass band and escort them from the train to the headquarters in the Gardner block.

All of the merchants who have so far been seen have promised to get out their Fourth of July bunting and decorate their buildings. The Red Men earnestly request all business men to do the same. The national colors they say are especially appropriate in view of the fact that the Improved Order of Red Men sprang from a society formed of the men who formed the "Boston Tea Party" and dumped the tea in Boston Harbor in the stormy days before the Revolutionary war. The members of Red Cloud tribe are trying to make the occasion a notable one in the fraternal history of Brainerd and ask the co-operation of the business men in this way.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. H. P. Dunn. mwf dw

A ROMANCE SHATTERED

Enamored Swain Comes Clear From Waterloo, Iowa, to Brainerd Only to be Disappointed

A beautiful romance was sadly shattered Wednesday when the real replaced the ideal in the minds of a man from Waterloo, Iowa, and a "vegetable relit," residing in this city. The swain, who had become enamored of the fair one through the gushing letters of a charming correspondence which started over a year ago, arrived in the city one day and left early next morning on his return a wiser if not a sadder man. When the yearnings of the beautiful unseen became so intense that one letter per week was not enough he responded to passionate appeals to come up and see her, but when he arrived the stuff was off. She was far from being the Venus his fancy had pictured, while he bore little resemblance to Adonis. She did not like his looks nor did he like her actions any better so they parted and agreed to disagree, she remaining here fancy free to court some other susceptible admirer during the glad leap year, while he returned to his home to moralize on the old saw that there are as good fish in the sea as ever was caught.

Given up to Die

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me much relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you. H. P. Dunn. mwf dw

Spotting Smokeless Powder.

German military authorities are experimenting with a device by which the location of troops using smokeless powder may be easily discovered. By this device it is proposed to survey the landscape through pale red glasses. The flash of smokeless powder appears strong in red light, while ordinary objects are dimmed. By furnishing field-glasses with the device in question, which is provided with screens of the proper tint, the position of concealed marksmen can be detected.

At the Unique

The entertainment at the Unique last night was very good. First number illustrated song, "Don't Worry" by Miss Kathleen Graham, was rendered in a very charming manner, and was followed by a series of comic moving pictures entitled, "House to Let, or The New Tenants." "The Dog Cop" was another comic number showing wonderful intelligence of a dog. This was followed by "If Someone Would Love Me," sung by Miss Kathleen Graham. "Fashionable Paris" and the "Witch's Kiss" are two other films well worth seeing.

The headliner at this popular theatre last night was "Discharging the Maid," comic. "Some Day," illustrated song sung by Miss Carmen Mahlum was well rendered. "The Story of Treasure Island" is a film 1,000 feet long and is very interesting. The Martinez displayed much talent, their first number being a duet played on a guitar and a harp-guitar. Next a violin solo, which was rich. Then followed another duet played on cigar box fiddles strung with one string. Next they showed their skill by playing one a barrel strung with one string both playing on the same string at the same time. The program was concluded by a banjo duet, which they were compelled to repeat.

Ole Olson

At the opera house March 18th will be a company of first class artists in the comedy drama "Ole Olson," the only Swedish dialect character that has stood the test of time. "Ole Olson" is an old play now but it is a play that is always a favorite with the public. It is bright and clean in its comedy, thrilling in its drama and full of pathos.

Parsifal

A beautiful dramatization of the Wagner wonder play of "Parsifal" will be produced at the Brainerd opera house Friday evening, March 27. This beautiful legend of the tempting of the knights of the Holy Grail by the Magician Klingsor, is presented by Martin & Emery in a production which for beauty of staging and scenic effects, as well as for the high character of the dramatic action is unsurpassed. The beautiful garden of the Flower Maidens, with its sudden transformation to an arid waste make a contrast of scenic effects seldom seen. Owing to the extreme length of the performance the curtain will rise at 7:45 sharp. Trum-peters will announce the commencement of each act by motifs from the opera "Parsifal" sounded in the lobby of the theatre. The following prices will prevail: Boxes $2, parquet $1.50, dress circle, and first two rows balcony, $1, last three rows balcony, 75 cents, gallery 50 cents.

Kerry Gow

Mr. Bernard Daly in that quaint old Irish play "Kerry Gow" will be at the opera house, March 21. Much has been said of the play and its star, as both play and player deserve honorable mention. The play teems with excitement. There is a famous race scene which is staged in so realistic a manner that those who are accustomed to the ponies can hardly keep betting. Mr. Daly's voice is melody itself and of late years he has been placed by many critics in the class of Andrew Mack and Chauncey Olcott. Whether or not that is true audiences will be able to judge on Saturday evening. Now you all do want to see a pocket edition of Chauncey Olcott. Well, it's up to you.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxative of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. H. P. Dunn. mwf dw

The Boys Are In It

The juvenile section of the Y. M. C. A. will be well represented in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium exhibition to be held on the 24th inst. The boys have learned their parts exceeding well and will make their portion of the program exceedingly interesting. They are doing splendid work on the "mat" and is very fascinating.

Secretary Manville has so arranged the program that it will be varied and interesting from the first numbers to the close.

No Case on Record

There is no case on record of a cough or cold resulting in pneumonia or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it will stop your cough and break up your cold quickly. Refuse any but the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow package. Contains no opiates and is safe and sure. H. P. Dunn. mwf dw

More Than a Score Perish.

Birmingham, March 6.—Repeated efforts of rescue parties provided with oxygen apparatus to reach the entombment miners, now believed to number twenty-one, at Hamstead colliery have failed. One of these rescuing parties was overcome by fumes and the work had to be abandoned. Two others narrowly escaped suffocation.
The fire in the mine is still raging and there is no hope now that a rescue can be effected.

Populists Instructed for Bryan.

Omaha, March 6.—After a debate convention decided to recognize the call of the national committee and to send a full delegation to the Populist convention at St. Louis. Thirty-seven delegates were selected for that purpose and instructed to vote and work for the interest of W. J. Bryan.

BRAVES FROM OTHER TRIBES
Will Assist Minneapolis Team in Adopting Braves Into Red
Cloud Tribes

Red Cloud tribe, improved order of Red Men met last night and made elaborate plans for the holding of their big pow wow on March 26th, when they expect to initiate nearly, if not quite, 300 braves into the tribe. The work will be done by a team from Minneapolis, said to be one of the most efficient in the state. Gardner's hall has been secured for the evening and headquarters for the day will be established in the vacant store room in the Gardner block. The arrangements are in the hands of the committee of which C. H.
Kyllo is chairman and J. C. Herbst,
Geo. Sargent, Geo. Weaver and Louis Stahlmann are members. This committee is empowered to appoint subcommittees on reception, entertainment, etc.

All the great chiefs of the state are expected to be present. Among those who have promised to attend are Great Sachem Dr. Thos. J. Reid, of Minneapolis; Great Chief of Records
Frank Hebl, of Minneapolis; Great Senior Sagamore W. S. Wright, of Minneapolis; Great Junior Sagamore
W. M. Erickson; Great Representatives Thos. J. McKenna, H. A. Finlayson, J. W. Henry, of St. Paul, Great Trustee; C. R. Seivers, of Minneapolis, Great Sannat; and Prof. U.
Curtis, of Lake City, will also be present.

There will be delegations present
from the tribes at Walker, Pine River, Little Falls and St. Cloud, and open house will be kept.

Among the candidates will be a bunch of 40 from Staples, 40 to 50 from Aitkin, 15 from Deerwood, 10 from Pillager and 6 to 8 from Motley.

Arrangements have been made to meet the visiting delegations with a brass band and escort them from the train to the headquarters in the Gardner block.

All of the merchants who have so far been seen have promised to get out their Fourth of July bunting and decorate their buildings. The Red Men earnestly request all business men to do the same. The national colors they say are especially appropriate in view of the fact that the Improved Order of Red Men sprang from a society formed of the men who formed the "Boston Tea Party" and dumped the tea in Boston Harbor in the stormy days before the Revolutionary war. The members of Red Cloud tribe are trying to make the occasion a notable one in the fraternal history of Brainerd and ask the co-operation of the business men in this way.

A ROMANCE SHATTERED

Enamored Swain Comes Clear From Waterloo, Iowa, to Brainerd Only to be Disappointed

A beautiful romance was sadly shattered Wednesday when the real replaced the ideal in the minds of a man from Waterloo, Iowa, and a "vegetable relief," residing in this city. The swain, who had become enamored of the fair one through the gushing letters of a charming correspondence which started over a year ago, arrived in the city one day and left early next morning on his return a wiser if not a sadder man. When the yearnings of the beautiful unseen became so intense that one letter per week was not enough he responded to passionate appeals to come up and see her, but when he arrived the stuff was off. She was far from being the Venus his fancy had pictured, while he bore little resemblance to Adonis. She did not like his looks nor did he like her actions any better so they parted and agreed to disagree, she remaining here fancy free to court some other susceptible admirer during the glad leap year, while he returned to his home to moralize on the old saw that there are as good fish in the sea
as ever was caught.

FACTS ABOUT NEW THEORY SECURED BY INTERVIEWS

People Tell the Reason for Their Faith in Cooper's Belief.

An article from the Nashville, Tenn., Banner, published during L. T. Cooper's visit to that city, throws some light on the remarkable success of the young man's theories and medicines in various cities visited by him during the past year. The article is as follows:

"In view of the enormous sale of Cooper's preparations now going on in this city and the intense interest which Mr. Cooper has stirred up since his arrival, a representative of the Banner spent Thursday afternoon at the young man's headquarters, watching the swarm of humanity come and go.

"During the afternoon the reporter interviewed many of the callers and obtained statements from all who cared to give them as to their experience with Cooper and his preparations.

"The following are selected from those statements as being typical of the general expression of the people seen:

"Mr. B. B. Lasater, living at 1224 North Fourth avenue, when interviewed, said: 'I have been troubled with my stomach for the past two years, and have had rheumatism for more than five years. Sometimes I could not walk, and there were times when I could not even move in bed. Hard knots would form on my muscles, which caused me intense pain. Gas formed on my stomach after eating, which gave me much pain and distress, and often I was restless and tossed all night, losing much sleep and rest.

"Hearing of Mr. Cooper and the great work his medicine was accomplishing for others, I decided to try it. I have taken it about two weeks, and find myself in a greatly improved condition. My stomach is in good shape, and does not trouble me at all. My rheumatism has nearly disappeared, and I expect to resume work shortly, for the first time in twelve months. Mr. Cooper certainly has a wonderful medicine, and I am grateful for what it has done for me.'

"Another caller was Mrs. T. J. Smith, of 505 Hudson street. She said: 'I have been a sufferer from bladder and kidney trouble for twenty-five years. In that time I have tried many prescriptions and various kinds of medicine, but received little or no benefit from them. I seldom had a sound night's sleep, my rest being broken at intervals throughout the night. I had pains in my back and burning sensations.

"I heard so much of Mr. Cooper that I came to the conclusion he might be able to afford me some relief. I have now been taking the medicine about a week, and feel better in every way. The pain has disappeared, and I have no distress whatever. I have come here today to express my appreciation to Mr. Cooper for his wonderful medicine and what it has done in my case. I will take pleasure in recommending it to others.'

"In spite of assertions by various physicians that Cooper is a fad who will soon die out, the young man seems to be gaining even greater headway as his visit draws to a close."

The agency for Cooper's celebrated medicines has been given to us. We are making a fine record with them. —H. P. Dunn & Co.

Fire Causes Heavy Damage.
Cleveland, March 13.—Fire gutted a five-story building on Lakeside avenue in the wholesale district, causing a total loss to tenants and owners of $150,000.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Peter Hagan, a laborer, was buried under fifteen feet of earth and killed in a sewer at St. Paul by the collapse of the braces in the excavation.

Tommy Burns, who is scheduled to fight Jim Roche at Dublin on March 17, met with a slight accident which has resulted in inflammation of the eye.

John L. Smithmeyer, a noted architect, died of carcinoma at Washington, D. C. He designed and superintended the construction of the Congressional library.

Trolley Car Funerals.
The street railways of Chicago, it is said, have made arrangements to run special funeral cars to the city cemeteries. Each car will seat forty persons and contains a special compartment for the casket. The cost of hiring such a car is only about $20, while the regular carriage hire for such an occasion is about $7 for each carriage used.

Kidney Troubles FROM THE LIVER.

In his study of kidney disease, Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author, found that 90 per cent. of the cases arose as a direct result of liver and bowel disorders, and working on this idea led to the discovery of his celebrated Kidney and Liver Pills, the only Kidney medicine having a combined action on liver and bowels as well.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills

By this unique action, cure the most complicated diseases of the kidneys when ordinary medicines fail. They also prevent kidney disease by curing liver complaint, biliousness and constipation. Try them when the back aches or there are rheumatic pains, or deposits in the urine. One pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary Jones, 831 East 2nd St., Mt. Vernon, Ind., states:

"I formerly suffered from Kidney trouble and severe pains in the back. Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills effected a thorough and lasting cure, and I consider them a splendid medicine."

ALIA IS FOUND GUILTY

Jury at Denver Convicts Murderer of a Priest.

DEATH PENALTY IMPOSED

Assassin Exhibits No Emotion on Learning His Fate, and Merely Inquires If There Is No Appeal—Motion for New Trial Made.

Denver, March 13.—"Is there no appeal?" These were the only words spoken by Giuseppe Alia when informed by the interpreter that the jury found him guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed sentence at death.

Just eighteen days after firing the shot which brought death to Father Francis Leo Heinrichs at the altar in St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, while in the act of administering the holy sacrament, this waif from Italy, an alleged but not proven anarchist, heard his doom.

In the courtroom not three blocks from the church where he committed his crime and within the sound of the chimes which he said drew him to that church, Alia received the judgment delivered by a jury of his peers. Stolid to the last he simply nodded his head and whispered to the interpreter: "Is there no appeal?" Then his chin sank on his breast and he made no further comment.

When the jury had been polled the judge thanked them for having done their duty and expressed his approval of the verdict. Attorney Wiedecomb of the defense made a motion for a new trial and was granted five days in which to file papers. The prisoner was then ordered to be returned to the county jail pending this action and the trial, which had lasted only three and a half days, was over. Under the laws of the state Alia cannot be hanged within sixty days of the rendering of the verdict.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the courtroom when the verdict was read by Foreman D. S. Johnson. The finding had seemed inevitable from the beginning and the audience received it in silence, apparently satisfied that justice had been done.

PLACED UNDER ARREST.

Effects of Denver Couple Are Being Investigated.

San Francisco, March 13.—H. Mortimer Wilson and his wife, who registered at the St. Francis hotel in this city as Mr. and Mrs. George H. Longworth of Denver, were arrested in their apartments and are being held for investigation of their effects, which include a check perforating machine and the personal check book of Governor Guild of Massachusetts. It was discovered Wilson had a certified check for $100 drawn on the Shawmut bank and signed "Curtis H. Guild." It was learned also that a check for $500 drawn on a Denver bank had been deposited in the Croker National bank of this city. Wilson had other check books, including those of some of the most prominent men of Massachusetts. The woman told the police that she married Wilson a year ago and that she was related to a member of Governor Guild's staff.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Iowa Man Also Tries to Shoot His Baby.

Oskaloosa, Ia., March 13.—Lee Grubb shot and killed his eighteen-year-old wife, tried to shoot his six-months-old baby, and then killed himself. The tragedy took place on a busy street corner down town and was witnessed by half a hundred persons. Grubb shot his wife through the head and the bullet intended for the baby hit the prostrate woman. A friend of the woman snatched the child from her arms and saved its life. Grubb then turned the revolver against his own head, falling within three feet of his wife. Grubb and his wife had been living apart for some time.

Missionary Convention Ended.

Pittsburg, March 13.—The first international convention of the Young People's Missionary movement closed here after three days devoted to plans for Christianizing heathen nations, by nearly 2,000 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada, and from old world countries, and an equal number of Pittsburg workers in the missionary cause.

Would Recover Funds.

New York, March 13.—Four stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad company, all residents of Connecticut, have made formal demand upon the directorate of the Union Pacific that actions at law or in equity be commenced without delay for the recovery of funds alleged to have been unlawfully diverted from the treasury of the company.

Buttermakers Elect Officers.

St. Paul, March 13.—The National Creamery Buttermakers' convention in session here elected the following officers: J. J. Farrell of Carver, Minn., president; Lauritz Olsen of West Deper, Wis., vice president, and S. B. Schilling of Chicago was re-elected secretary-treasurer. These were all elected unanimously.

SURPRISE FOR A HUNTER.

Bagged Fur Coat, Which He Mistook For a Fine Bear.

William J. Worcester, George W. Cook, Lawrence Perry and Harry N. Reeves, all of Bloomfield, N. J., went to a lake near Stockholm, Morris county, N. J., to fish through the ice the other day. All wore sweaters except Mr. Worcester, who had on a costly fur overcoat, of which he was very proud. After fishing with good luck for awhile Worcester found the overcoat too warm; so, going to the shore, he laid it on a tree stump.

He and his friends were busy pulling up pickerel through holes in the ice when two reports of a gun sounded in quick succession.

"I've got him! I killed him! Hooray! He never moved! As fine a bear as ever I saw!" triumphantly yelled a man who was running toward the stump.

Arrived there, the hunter's eyes seemed about to pop from his head as he realized that he had shot not a bear, but a fur overcoat. But fright supplemented his astonishment when he saw Mr. Worcester rushing toward him, breathing frostily very hot threats. While the fishers roared with laughter the hunter ran until he was out of sight.

His aim had been good. When Worcester held up the overcoat, daylight shone through dozens of holes in it where two charges of buckshot had penetrated it. And Mr. Worcester forgot his anger and had to laugh too.

GIRL TYPEWRITER'S FEAT.

American Champion Gave Prince of Wales Souvenir of Rapid Work.

Miss Rose L. Fritz of New York, the champion typewriter, was sitting at her machine in the business exhibition at the Olympia in London the other afternoon when the Prince and Princess of Wales came by.

"They tell me that you have done some wonderful things, Miss Fritz," said the prince. "We should like to see you work."

Forthwith the American girl's fingers moved rapidly over the keyboard of her machine, and in sixty seconds she handed to the prince a sheet containing 113 words properly punctuated and without a single error. "It is wonderful," said the prince. "Do you mind signing it?" He carried the souvenir away over the signature "Rosa L. Fritz."

At another stand the prince said, "I don't think I could ever learn to work that."

"Oh," replied the pretty attendant, "we have boys only fourteen years old who can do it."

TATTOO TO TELL "REDS."

Rome Policeman Would Put Indelible Sign on Each Anarchist.

A member of the political police squad in Rome exclusively entrusted with the surveillance of anarchists has submitted a novel plan for identifying "reds" throughout the world, says a cable dispatch recently received in Chicago. He proposes to tattoo the anarchists on a visible part of the body with a small indelible sign, varying in color in the different countries and in shape according to the dangerous propensities of the individual marked.

The sign is to be kept secret and known only to the international police. It is asserted by this system the police would be enabled to watch the anarchists and thus prevent attacks similar to that made upon Chief Shipley in Chicago. The idea is favored in Chicago, although the police refuse to discuss it until it has been approved by the powers.

Plan to Honor Tolstoi.

Of all the suggestions which have been made as to how best to celebrate Count Tolstoi's eightieth birthday next August the one which meets with the most approval, according to a German authority, is the school plan. If this is carried out the Tolstoi estate, Jassnaja Poljana, will be purchased and will be converted into a great educational institution. The plan also includes the removal to Jassnaja Poljana of Dolgovo of the little house where the sage was born. The offer of Andrew Carnegie, the American "millionaire," to secure from the various publishers the copyrights of Tolstoi's works so that they may become the property of the world also meets with much approval. This will cost about 1,000,000 rubles.

Butter From a Tree.

In search for new plants of utility attention has been drawn to the karite tree of French West Africa and the adjacent territory to the eastward. This is not a forest tree, but grows in open spaces and in gardens. Its fruit is edible. The hard shell seeds contain a fatty substance used by the natives as butter, and it is suggested that this substance should be valuable for other purposes. The gum, not like rubber, into which the sap coagulates is another article of possible commercial value.

Boat to Travel on Sea Bottom.

A submarine has been built for sponge fishing by a company at Bizerta, a fortified seaport of Tunis, in Africa. When sunk it can travel on a sort of wheel along the bottom of the sea, being worked by two submarine oars from the inside. It collects sponges by means of a mechanical gripper and has electrical searchlights, a telephone and a speaking tube by which it can communicate with a boat on the surface. The submarine has already been down to a depth of 330 feet.

NEBRASKA FOR TAFT

Republican State Convention Endorses His Candidacy.

WITHOUT DISSENTING VOICE

Solid Delegation for War Secretary Will Go to Chicago Instructed to Vote for His Nomination First, Last and All the Time.

Omaha, March 13.—Without a voice of dissent the candidacy of William H. Taft for president of the United States was endorsed by the Republican state convention of Nebraska and a solid delegation for the secretary will go to Chicago instructed to vote for his nomination, first, last and all the time.

It was a Taft convention from start to finish, despite the talk of a division, and when the time of selecting of delegates-at-large came, the slated delegation—Governor Sheldon, Senator Norris Brown, Victor Rosewater of Omaha and Judge Allen W. Field of Lincoln—went through with a rush. The alternates are A. C. Rankin of Furnas county, I. G. Baright of Omaha, Lieutenant Governor M. R. Howell of Burt county and Paul H. Marley of Custer county.

Harmony prevailed throughout the meeting of the convention, although some dissent was apparent in the district gatherings and over the matter of selecting a national committeeman.

The Second and Sixth districts held their conventions at the Rome hotel and the representatives of organized labor made a demonstration on the floor of the Second district gathering. Tony Donahue, an Omaha labor leader, who was a delegate to the district convention, made a formal protest against the candidacy of William H. Taft. He addressed the convention briefly, saying that he represented 5,000 voters in the Second district who were unalterably opposed to Secretary Taft and asked that he and fifteen other delegates be placed on record as opposed to sending a delegation to Chicago for the war secretary.

Donahue was heard respectfully, but the convention took no action and the matter was not brought to the attention of the state body.

The day's proceedings were marred by nothing of consequence and when the convention met the entire programme had been so well mapped out that it took but two hours and forty minutes to reach adjournment, during which time five speeches were heard, two from chairman and three from candidates for delegate-at-large. Daniel Nettleton, who for thirty-six years has divided his time between a farm near Fairfield and the advancement of his political ambitions, was made temporary chairman. He is an unique character and was speaker of the house in the last state legislature. Following an impromptu five-minute speech he proceeded with the routine of the convention, giving way to permanent Chairman Charles B. Anderson, amid a roar of applause.

The candidates for delegate-at-large were each asked to state their position on presidential preference and those present addressed the convention. Judge Field of Lancaster, who followed Governor Sheldon, delivered an address which he divided between approval of President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft and sarcastic allusions to William J. Bryan.

The platform was given over principally to an endorsement of the policies of President Roosevelt and of Secretary Taft for president. It followed the lines of that adopted by the Ohio convention and in one instance quoted that document, where in a revision of the tariff is declared necessary. State issues and the administration of state officials also came in for full approval.

Missourians for Hughes.

St. Louis, March 13.—Republican conventions held on the call of the chairman of the state committee in the Eleventh and Twelfth congressional districts to elect delegates to the national convention in Chicago adopted resolutions endorsing Governor Charles E. Hughes of New York for the next president and the delegates elected from the Twelfth district were instructed for him. The Eleventh district delegates were uninstructed.

SIX CHINESE DEAD.

Result of an Incendiary Fire at Marysville, Cal.

Marysville, Cal., March 13.—Six Chinese dead, two others badly injured and one building partly destroyed, was the result of a fire in Chinatown at First and Oak streets in this city. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Shot Man for a Moose.

Baudette, Minn., March 13.—Peter Larson, while at work clearing east of Rapid river, was accidentally shot through the abdomen by a homestead named Wingren. Wingren had tracked a moose and, seeing an object in the thick forest, fired two shots. One missed, and the other struck Larson, who died before medical aid could reach him. Wingren left for International Falls to give himself up.

John L. Smithmeyer, a noted architect, died of carcinoma at Washington, D. C. He designed and superintended the construction of the Congressional library.

Trolley Car Funerals.

The street railways of Chicago, it is said, have made arrangements to run special funeral cars to the city cemeteries. Each car will seat forty persons and contains a special compartment for the casket. The cost of hiring such a car is only about $20, while the regular carriage hire for such an occasion is about $7 for each carriage used.

Kidney Troubles FROM THE LIVER.

In his study of kidney disease, Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author, found that 90 per cent. of the cases arose as a direct result of liver and bowel disorders, and working on this idea led to the discovery of his celebrated Kidney and Liver Pills, the only Kidney medicine having a combined action on liver and bowels as well.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills

By this unique action, cure the most complicated diseases of the kidneys when ordinary medicines fail. They also prevent kidney disease by curing liver complaint, biliousness and constipation. Try them when the back aches or there are rheumatic pains, or deposits in the urine. One pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary Jones, 831 East 2nd St., Mt. Vernon, Ind., states:

"I formerly suffered from Kidney trouble and severe pains in the back. Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills effected a thorough and lasting cure, and I consider them a splendid medicine."

ALIA IS FOUND GUILTY

Jury at Denver Convicts Murderer of a Priest.

DEATH PENALTY IMPOSED

Assassin Exhibits No Emotion on Learning His Fate, and Merely Inquires If There Is No Appeal—Motion for New Trial Made.

Denver, March 13.—"Is there no appeal?" These were the only words spoken by Giuseppe Alia when informed by the interpreter that the jury found him guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed sentence at death.

Just eighteen days after firing the shot which brought death to Father Francis Leo Heinrichs at the altar in St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, while in the act of administering the holy sacrament, this wail from Italy, an alleged but not proven anarchist, heard his doom.

In the courtroom not three blocks from the church where he committed his crime and within the sound of the chimes which he said drew him to that church, Alia received the judgment delivered by a jury of his peers. Stolid to the last he simply nodded his head and whispered to the interpreter: "Is there no appeal?" Then his chin sank on his breast and he made no further comment.

When the jury had been polled the judge thanked them for having done their duty and expressed his approval of the verdict. Attorney Wiedecomb of the defense made a motion for a new trial and was granted five days in which to file papers. The prisoner was then ordered to be returned to the county jail pending this action and the trial, which had lasted only three and a half days, was over. Under the laws of the state Alia cannot be hanged within sixty days of the rendering of the verdict.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the courtroom when the verdict was read by Foreman D. S. Johnson. The finding had seemed inevitable from the beginning and the audience received it in silence, apparently satisfied that justice had been done.

PLACED UNDER ARREST.

Effects of Denver Couple Are Being Investigated.

San Francisco, March 13.—H. Mortimer Wilson and his wife, who registered at the St. Francis hotel in this city as Mr. and Mrs. George H. Longworth of Denver, were arrested in their apartments and are being held for investigation of their effects, which include a check perforating machine and the personal check book of Governor Guild of Massachusetts. It was discovered Wilson had a certified check for $100 drawn on the Shawmut bank and signed "Curtis H. Guild." It was learned also that a check for $500 drawn on a Denver bank had been deposited in the Croker National bank of this city. Wilson had other check books, including those of some of the most prominent men of Massachusetts. The woman told the police that she married Wilson a year ago and that she was related to a member of Governor Guild's staff.

Iowa Man Also Tries to Shoot His Baby.

Oskaloosa, Ia., March 13.—Lee Grubb shot and killed his eighteen-year-old wife, tried to shoot his six-months-old baby, and then killed himself. The tragedy took place on a busy street corner down town and was witnessed by half a hundred persons. Grubb shot his wife through the head and the bullet intended for the baby hit the prostrate woman. A friend of the woman snatched the child from her arms and saved its life. Grubb then turned the revolver against his own head, falling within three feet of his wife. Grubb and his wife had been living apart for some time.

Missionary Convention Ended.

Pittsburg, March 13.—The first international convention of the Young People's Missionary movement closed here after three days devoted to plans for Christianizing heathen nations, by nearly 2,000 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada, and from old world countries, and an equal number of Pittsburg workers in the missionary cause.

Would Recover Funds.

New York, March 13.—Four stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad company, all residents of Connecticut, have made formal demand upon the directorate of the Union Pacific that actions at law or in equity be commenced without delay for the recovery of funds alleged to have been unlawfully diverted from the treasury of the company.

Buttermakers Elect Officers.

St. Paul, March 13.—The National Creamery Buttermakers' convention in session here elected the following officers: J. J. Farrell of Carver, Minn., president; Lauritz Olsen of West Des Moines, Wis., vice president, and S. B. Schilling of Chicago was re-elected secretary-treasurer. These were all elected unanimously.

SURPRISE FOR A HUNTER.

Bagged Fur Coat, Which He Mistook For a Fine Bear.

William J. Worcester, George W. Cook, Lawrence Perry and Harry N. Reeves, all of Bloomfield, N. J., went to a lake near Stockholm, Morris county, N. J., to fish through the ice the other day. All wore sweaters except Mr. Worcester, who had on a costly fur overcoat, of which he was very proud. After fishing with good luck for a while Worcester found the overcoat too warm; so, going to the shore, he laid it on a tree stump.

He and his friends were busy pulling up pickerel through holes in the ice when two reports of a gun sounded in quick succession.

"I've got him! I killed him! Hooray! He never moved! As fine a bear as ever I saw!" triumphantly yelled a man who was running toward the stump.

Arrived there, the hunter's eyes seemed about to pop from his head as he realized that he had shot not a bear, but a fur overcoat. But fright supplemented his astonishment when he saw Mr. Worcester rushing toward him, breathing frostily very hot threats. While the fishers roared with laughter the hunter ran until he was out of sight.

His aim had been good. When Worcester held up the overcoat, daylight shone through dozens of holes in it where two charges of buckshot had penetrated it. And Mr. Worcester forgot his anger and had to laugh too.

GIRL TYPEWRITER'S FEAT.

American Champion Gave Prince of Wales Souvenir of Rapid Work.

Miss Rose L. Fritz of New York, the champion typewriter, was sitting at her machine in the business exhibition at the Olympia in London the other afternoon when the Prince and Princess of Wales came by.

Forthwith the American girl's fingers moved rapidly over the keyboard of her machine, and in sixty seconds she handed to the prince a sheet containing 113 words properly punctuated and without a single error. "It is wonderful," said the prince. "Do you mind signing it?" He carried the souvenir away over the signature "Rosa L. Fritz."

At another stand the prince said, "I don't think I could ever learn to work that."

"Oh," replied the pretty attendant, "we have boys only fourteen years old who can do it."

TATTOO TO TELL "REDS."

Rome Policeman Would Put Indelible Sign on Each Anarchist.

A member of the political police squad in Rome exclusively intrusted with the surveillance of anarchists has submitted a novel plan for identifying "reds" throughout the world, says a cable dispatch recently received in Chicago. He proposes to tattoo the anarchists on a visible part of the body with a small indelible sign, varying in color in the different countries and in shape according to the dangerous propensities of the individual marked.

The sign is to be kept secret and known only to the international police. It is asserted by this system the police would be enabled to watch the anarchists and thus prevent attacks similar to that made upon Chief Shipley in Chicago. The idea is favored in Chicago, although the police refuse to discuss it until it has been approved by the powers.

Plan to Honor Tolstoi.

Of all the suggestions which have been made as to how best to celebrate Count Tolstoi's eightieth birthday next August the one which meets with the most approval, according to a German authority, is the school plan. If this is carried out the Tolstoi estate, Jasnaja Poljana, will be purchased and will be converted into a great educational institution. The plan also includes the removal of Jasnaja Poljana from Dolgovo of the little house where the sage was born. The offer of Andrew Carnegie, the American "millionaire," to secure from the various publishers the copyrights of Tolstoi's works so that they may become the property of the world also meets with much approval. This will cost about 1,000,000 rubles.

Butter From a Tree.

In search for new plants of utility attention has been drawn to the karite tree of French West Africa and the adjacent territory to the eastward. This is not a forest tree, but grows in open spaces and in gardens. Its fruit is edible. The hard shell seeds contain a fatty substance used by the natives as butter, and it is suggested that this substance should be valuable for other purposes. The gum, not like rubber, into which the sap coagulates is another article of possible commercial value.

Boat to Travel on Sea Bottom.

A submarine has been built for sponge fishing by a company at Bizerta, a fortified seaport of Tunis, in Africa. When sunk it can travel on a sort of wheel along the bottom of the sea, being worked by two submarine oars from the inside. It collects sponges by means of a mechanical gripper and has electrical searchlights, a telephone and a speaking tube by which it can communicate with a boat on the surface. The submarine has already been down to a depth of 330 feet.

NEBRASKA FOR TAFT

Republican State Convention Endorses His Candidacy.

WITHOUT DISSENTING VOICE

Solid Delegation for War Secretary Will Go to Chicago Instructed to Vote for His Nomination First, Last and All the Time.

Omaha, March 13.—Without a voice of dissent the candidacy of William H. Taft for president of the United States was endorsed by the Republican state convention of Nebraska and a solid delegation for the secretary will go to Chicago instructed to vote for his nomination, first, last and all the time.

It was a Taft convention from start to finish, despite the talk of a division, and when the time of selecting of delegates-at-large came, the slated delegation—Governor Sheldon, Senator Norris Brown, Victor Rosewater of Omaha and Judge Allen W. Field of Lincoln—went through with a rush. The alternates are A. C. Rankin of Furnas county, I. G. Baright of Omaha, Lieutenant Governor M. R. Howell of Butte county and Paul H. Marley of Custer county.

Harmony prevailed throughout the meeting of the convention, although some dissention was apparent in the district gatherings and over the matter of selecting a national committee-man.

The Second and Sixth districts held their conventions at the Rome hotel and the representatives of organized labor made a demonstration on the floor of the Second district gathering. Tony Donahue, an Omaha labor leader, who was a delegate to the district convention, made a formal protest against the candidacy of William H. Taft. He addressed the convention briefly, saying that he represented 5,000 voters in the Second district who were unalterably opposed to Secretary Taft and asked that he and fifteen other delegates be placed on record as opposed to sending a delegation to Chicago for the war secretary.

Donahue was heard respectfully, but the convention took no action and the matter was not brought to the attention of the state body.

The day's proceedings were marred by nothing of consequence and when the convention met the entire programme had been so well mapped out that it took but two hours and forty minutes to reach adjournment, during which time five speeches were heard, two from chairman and three from candidates for delegate-at-large. Daniel Nettleton, who for thirty-six years has divided his time between a farm near Fairfield and the advancement of his political ambitions, was made temporary chairman. He is an unique character and was speaker of the house in the last state legislature. Following an impromptu five-minute speech he proceeded with the routine of the convention, giving way to permanent Chairman Charles B. Anderson, amid a roar of applause.

The candidates for delegate-at-large were each asked to state their position on presidential preference and those present addressed the convention. Judge Field of Lancaster, who followed Governor Sheldon, delivered an address which he divided between approval of President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft and sarcastic allusions to William J. Bryan.

The platform was given over principally to an endorsement of the policies of President Roosevelt and of Secretary Taft for president. It followed the lines of that adopted by the Ohio convention and in one instance quoted that document, where in a revision of the tariff is declared necessary. State issues and the administration of state officials also came in for full approval.

Missourians for Hughes.

St. Louis, March 13.—Republican conventions held on the call of the chairman of the state committee in the Eleventh and Twelfth congressional districts to elect delegates to the national convention in Chicago adopted resolutions endorsing Governor Charles E. Hughes of New York for the next president and the delegates elected from the Twelfth district were instructed for him. The Eleventh district delegates were uninstructed.

SIX CHINESE DEAD.

Result of an Incendiary Fire at Marysville, Cal.

Marysville, Cal., March 13.—Six Chinese dead, two others badly injured and one building partly destroyed, was the result of a fire in Chinatown at First and Oak streets in this city. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Shot Man for a Moose.

Baudette, Minn., March 13.—Peter Larson, while at work clearing east of Rapid river, was accidentally shot through the abdomen by a homesteader named Wingren. Wingren had tracked a moose and, seeing an object in the thick forest, fired two shots. One missed, and the other struck Larson, who died before medical aid could reach him. Wingren left for International Falls to give himself up.
